Affirmative Defenses

For its affirmative defenses to the plaintiffs' Complaint, HPI states as follows:

First Affirmative Defense

1. Plaintiffs failed to sell their stock in a timely manner according to the schedule provided for in the agreements between the parties in connection with the Settlement Agreement and are therefore barred from recovering under these agreements.

Second Affirmative Defense

1. The parties have previously settled all matters between them pursuant to the Settlement Agreement.

2. HPI has performed its obligations under the Settlement Agreement.

3. The claims between the parties have been paid in full and satisfied according to the terms of the Settlement Agreement.

Third Affirmative Defense

1. The parties have previously settled all matters between them pursuant to the Settlement Agreement.
2. HPI has performed its obligations under the Settlement Agreement.

3. The claims between the parties have been paid in full and satisfied according to the terms of the Settlement Agreement.

4. Any alleged losses suffered by plaintiffs are a result of their own actions in selling the stock in a manner that breached the agreements between the parties.

Fourth Affirmative Defense

1. The parties have previously settled all matters between them pursuant to the Settlement Agreement.
2. HPI has performed its obligations under the Settlement Agreement.

3. The claims between the parties have been paid in full and satisfied according to the terms of the Settlement Agreement.

4. Any alleged losses suffered by plaintiffs are a result of their own failure to timely sell the stock and a result of their own inaction when they could have sold the stock pursuant to various exemptions from registration.

WHEREFORE, defendant HPI respectfully requests that the Court enter judgment in favor of the defendant HPI and against plaintiffs, dismissing this action, an award defendant HPI its costs, and reasonable attorneys fees as the prevailing party as provide for in the Settlement Agreement, and grant HPI any other relief that it finds to be just and proper.

Counterclaim

HPI, for its counterclaim against the plaintiffs, Colin P. Markey, Kathy Moore, Paul A. Moore, Theodore H. Swindells, and Sherie Swiontek (the "Plaintiffs"), states as follows:

1. HPI is a corporation incorporated in the state of Delaware, with its principal place of business in Seattle, Washington.

2. Colin P. Markey is a citizen of Illinois who resides in Chicago, Illinois.

3. Kathy Moore and Paul A. Moore are citizens of Illinois who reside in Lake Forest, Illinois.

4. Theodore H. Swindells is a citizen of California who resides in San Francisco, California.

5. Sherie Swiontek is a citizen of Illinois who resides in Gurnee, Illinois.

6. On or about May 10, 2006, various parties, including HPI and the Plaintiffs entered into the Settlement Agreement, a true and accurate copy of which is attached as Exhibit A to the Complaint.

7. At various times and on or about October 17, 2007, Plaintiffs have made demand on HPI for money and stock to which they are not entitled under the terms of the Settlement Agreement.

8. On or about October 24, 2007, the Plaintiffs commenced an action in the Cook County Circuit Court seeking to recover money or stock to which they are not entitled under the Settlement Agreement.

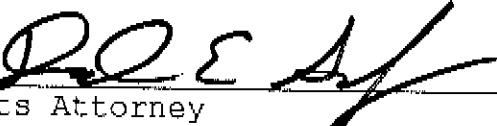

9. Plaintiffs claims under the Settlement Agreement in this action are without merit and HPI will prevail on those claims. As the prevailing party in the action with respect to the Settlement Agreement, HPI is entitled to recover its reasonable attorneys' fees and costs as provided for in the Settlement Agreement (Settlement Agreement, Para. 11 on p. 8).

10. HPI has incurred and continues to incur attorneys' fees and costs in defending this action and pursuing its defenses and counterclaims.

WHEREFORE, HPI respectfully requests that the Court enter judgment in favor of the HPI and against Plaintiffs, awarding HPI its reasonable attorneys' fees and costs as the prevailing party as provided for in the Settlement Agreement, and grant HPI any other relief that it finds to be just and proper.
